Wants to Die in His Old Southern Home.

In Somerset, Pulaski County, Kentucky, is an old negro, an ex-slave, by the name of Harvey Pratt, who wants to know if his former master was of the same family as the Pratts who live in Newberry. His old mistress was Dolly Nance before her marriage to Thomas H. Pratt. When the war broke out Harvey went to the army to wait upon his master, Major James M. Baxter of the third regiment, from Newberry. Havey served through the entire war, he wants to die and be buried in his old Southern home, and would like, if any of the family of his master are still living in Newberry, for them to communicate with him at Somerset, Ky. He communicated with the ladies at the Charleston Exposition, wanting them to bring him to the Exposition and his letter was turned over to us by them.
 He wants to get in touch with the family of his master in Newberry.

Dr. Nance in Charleston.

Dr. J. W. Nance, a prominent physician, and Mr. J. B. Newman, a prosperous and well-to-do business man, of Fort White, Fla., are in the city, registered at the Hotel Calhoun. The visitors from the land of the sweet magnolia and the country of sunshine, fruits and flowers are in Charleston purely in search of pleasure and recreation. Dr. Nance took it into his head that he wanted to see the Exposition and the city about which he had heard a great deal. He turned over his patients to another doctor for a few days and together with his friend, Mr. Newman, who left his business in trustworthy hands, boarded a train at Fort White and reached South Carolina in time to spend Christmas Day. Both the physician and the merchant stated yesterday that they were thoroughly delighted with their trip. It is safe to predict that they will have no unkind remarks to make about the town when they go back home.—News and Courier, 27th.

Married.

December 18th, 1901, by Rev. R. C.
 Ligon, at Trinity M. E. Church, Mr.
 Jacob Hunt and Miss Iva Senn—all of Newberry county.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. S. Boozer, December 26th, 1901, by Rev. R. C. Ligon, Mr. K. H. Senn and Miss Alma Boozer—both of Newberry county, S. C.

Rev. E. T. Adams to Wed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kirby authorized the formal announcement today of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Bessie Jean to, Rev.
 E. Tarrant Adams, of Norfolk, Va., the wedding to take place at the family home on Russell street on New Year's Day, at 8 o'clock in the evening. It will be celebrated in the presence only of a limited number of guests, and all of the appointments though elegant, will be marked by the simplicity which is characteristic of the taste of the bride.
 Miss Kirby will be given away by her father, and her sister, Mrs. Lula Kirby Parrish, will serve as matron of honor.
 The bride and groom will go at once to their new home at Rock Hill, S. C.

This marriage will be one of much interest. The bride is a lovely and popular young woman, who by her sunny disposition and magnetic fascination of manner will be an attractive acquisition to whatever field of work her husband may be called. She is gifted with unusual musical talent, which has been cultured to a high degree, and socially is one of the most popular young women in Nashville.

The groom graduated last June from the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University, and has since joined the South Carolina conference, and is now holding a responsible charge at Rock Hill, S. C., being pastor of the Laurel street church. He is a native of Virginia, where his family name has been prominent in the affairs of the State and church for generations.

The above is taken from a Nashville paper and has been handed us by a friend of Rev. Adams, he having many numbered among the citizens of Newberry, having served the O'Neal street church last year.

Old Soldier's Experience.

M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctor's treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25c at all druggists.

Meals served in good style, the very best the market affords at R. J. Miller's restaurant, near postoffice. t & t.

MASONIC INSTALLATION.

Beautiful and Impressive Ceremonies Followed by a Most Delightful Supper.

Mr. Editor:—It was our privilege to be present and witness the beautiful installation of the newly elected officers of Amity Lodge, No. 87 of Order of A. F. M., on the evening of the 27th.
 Nearly fifty members were present.

Brother McHutchison who has proceeded over the lodge for the past twelve months with ease and grace as Worshipful Master, opened the lodge in due form, after which Bro. A. C. Jones, Past Master, installed our new Worshipful Master, Bro. Otto Klettner—the honorable mayor of our city.

Capt. A. P. Pifer was the efficient master of ceremonies in conducting the brethren-elect to their different stations about the lodge.

It has been our privilege to attend a number of lodges, but this one is most fortunate in its selection of officers to serve the ensuing year. It goes without saying that Bro. Otto Klettner is one of the brightest Masons in our order. He is one of the most generous hearted men I have ever known, and his brethren not only admire, but love him, because of the noble traits which characterize him in all his dealings with his fellow-men.

After being inducted into his office his office as Worshipful Master he proceeded to install the others, in a beautiful and impressive way.

The Senior Warden-elect, is Dr. W. E.
 Pelham, who is well up on the duties of a Mason, and is fully conversant with his duty and ceremony as Senior Warden.

The Junior Warden-elect is the Hon.
 C. S. Mower, who has but recently taken the solemn and binding obligations of a Master Warden, but has made such rapid proficiency in the work that his brethren have unanimously chosen him as their Junior Warden, and we all look with pride and pleasure upon him as one of the brethren who will make his way to the highest positions in the Masonic realm, and at no distant day.

It is needless to speak of the Secretary, for everybody knows the sturdy and true J. H. M. Kinard. He can be Secretary as long as he lives.

Nor is it necessary to eulogize our Treasurer—for everybody knows Leland M. Speers—a man among men, against whom none can justly have ought. Long may he live to manage the finances of Amity, No. 87.

The other brethren in office are young men of high moral character and are all bright Masons, and are destined to fill positions of honor about these they now hold. They are J. E.
 Renwick, L. H. Hunt, J. W. Earhardt, T. O. Stewart; and last but not least, in importance, is one "who is next to the best looking Mason" in town—our efficient Tyler, W. S. Mann. Under his vigilant eye the door from without is guarded, and everything within is as neat as a pin. None can excel him in his office.

I would like to speak of all the officers who presided over the lodge in their respective places last year, but suffice it to say that all retire with the "well done" from their brethren.

Mr. Editor, indulge me for a few moments. I must tell of the thing that struck my fancy. After the lodge was closed, we were all invited by our W. M. around to Bro. R. J. Miller's where a sumptuous repast had been arranged for by Bros. Klettner, Pelham and Mower, consisting of oysters in abundance, coffee, crackers, celery, turkey and fine cigars, for all who would like to smoke after meals. My, such a supper! To know that Bro. Bro. prepared it is a guarantee that it was all that could be asked for. I have not heard from any of the brethren this morning, but I suppose they still survive as I have not heard of the need of any undertaker as yet. As for myself, I rested comfortably during the night and am ready for another installation after the same fashion.

May we continue to be bound together by still stronger ties. So note it be.

DOUBT

LACK OF KNOWLEDGE.

Women who are yet to experience the trial of motherhood should put themselves and reason with modern intelligence. Theories based upon the conditions that surrounded the mother of the lower animal kingdom, should not be advanced as pure ignorance. Fashion and civilization has changed your mode of living, dress and thought. The modern mother need not suffer, yet she surely will if nature is left alone to mould the fetus and give successful issue of the living child. Mother's Friend is a century old, reliable, efficient, for external use shortly after a woman finds herself pregnant, or as soon as fullness and discomfort with aching sickness is evident.
 It relieves the excruciating pain occasioned by the strain on the abdomen of the abdomen. A bottle costs a dollar, and is sold by #1 drug stores.
